

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

September 15, 2005

Congratulations to the members of the American Automotive Leasing Association as you celebrate your 50th anniversary.

America is a land of great opportunity because of the hard work, innovation, and character of our citizens. I applaud the dedication of your members and all those who promote integrity and excellence within your profession. Your years of service have contributed to our Nation's tradition of success.

Laura and I send our best wishes.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "George W. Bush", on a light beige background.